Distance learning with Office 365: Guidance for parents and guardians

From Microsoft Teams for Education

What does my student need to sign in to their Office 365 account?

- 1) go to www.office.com
- 2) sign in with their e-mail and a password
- 3) select "Teams" to see which class teams they're in.

Microsoft Teams can be accessed online or downloaded to a home or mobile device. Explore this quick-start guide that enables your student to get going with Teams right away.

How will my student communicate with their teachers and classmates?

Using Teams! Teams is an online classroom hub, where your student can chat with their whole class, in groups with other students, and one-on-one with their teachers. Through Teams, your student can also make video calls. It will look like the screen below:

Each of your student's classes (if they have more than one) gets its own team, which is set up by a teacher or an IT Admin.

How does my student join a team? How do they know if they're part of their class' team?

Different schools and teachers may manage the Teams setup process differently. To explore Teams and see the class teams they're in, your student can sign in to their school Office 365 account at Office.com and select the Teams app. Students will also receive an email notification when they've been added to a team.

How is my student's communication and activity monitored in Teams?

Your child's teacher will monitor communications. An example of what it will look like is below:

Can my student find extra resources and take notes in TEAMS?

Yes – every class team has a Class Notebook, where your student has their own private notebook space. An example of what it looks like is below:

Students can find both Assignments and Class Notebook as tabs in the General channel of each of their class teams.

How does my student turn in assignments using Teams? Can they check their grades in Teams? Students can turn in their assignments by going to the Assignments tab in the General channel of their class team, then selecting an assignment. They can attach any appropriate work and select Turn in. An example of what it will look like is below:
