Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Watson Institute's 45th Annual First National Bank Pro-Am Golf Tournament, take two!

As anyone who works in special education will tell you, being flexible and adapting to the unique challenges of each day are essential skills to working in the field.

The weather on June 6th threw us a curveball, but with your continued support and flexibility, we're welcoming golfers back to the historic Sewickley Heights Golf Club to support the Watson Institute's schools and programs for students with disabilities.

Your participation in the Pro-Am is vital to helping Watson enhance and grow the services we provide to the children who need us.

While golf is primarily a solo sport, the Pro-Am is a team effort, led by Ron Donatelli, our Pro-Am Committee Chairman, and Pittsburgh Region President of First National Bank. We are grateful for FNB's continued generous support as our Title and 19th Hole Reception sponsor, and for Ron's efforts in leading the Pro-Am Committee alongside Vice-Chairman, Bud Thorne.

The Committee works tirelessly on behalf of the Watson Institute and the children we serve to ensure the Pro-Am remains a premier event, raising significant funding to support our crucial work. Please join us in thanking them for their commitment!

Finally, we extend our gratitude to our corporate and individual sponsors whose contributions have made this year's Pro-Am a success.

Together, we can help children with special needs reach their fullest potential in all areas of their lives.

With heartfelt appreciation,

Dear Friends,

Thank you for joining us on the course today to support the Watson Institute's 45th Annual First National Bank Pro-Am Golf Tournament. Your partnership and understanding in the face of adverse weather conditions in June helped make today's outing possible.

For more than forty years, supporters of the Pro-Am have been instrumental in advancing the Watson Institute's mission to offer specialized educational services and mental health support to children with disabilities.

We extend our deepest gratitude to our generous Title and 19th Hole Reception sponsor, First National Bank, and our Breakfast and Lunch sponsor, P.J. Dick.

Thank you to our 2025 Gold Level sponsors: Adveen Energy, Babst Calland, BD&E, C.S. McKee, Calgon Carbon Corporation, Davenport Group, Dollar Bank, Gateway Engineers, Gridiron Partners, Highmark Blue Cross Blue Shield, HKS Financial Partners, JMM Resources, Mark Hale, Marquette Associates, Matthew DiAndreth, Metz Lewis Brodman Must O'Keefe LLC, PNC Bank, Saint's Painting, Simpson McCrady, Spanos Group of Raymond James, Stonewood Capital, and TriState Capital.

Finally, we'd like to share our thanks with our Pro-Am Committee, whose commitment to the mission of the Watson Institute is the cornerstone of the Pro-Am's success. Their efforts brought together a community of golfers and supporters who share in our enthusiasm for supporting children with disabilities.

We hope you will be inspired by the important work of the Watson Institute and join us at next year's outing. On behalf of the Watson Institute, we are truly grateful for your support.
